Description

The Tennis Power Trainer Combo Pack System includes three of our resistance training tools which can be used individually or in various combinations.

Each tool provides unique benefits for warmups, resistance training and stroke development.

The Swing Max - Tennis Racquet Resistance Training Weight can be used to warmup or to develop your stroke power, control and consistency.

The Swing Sleeve - Tennis Racquet Resistance Training Sleeve is a tennis racquet sleeve that is used for resistance training. It can be used to warm-up, cool down or while performing various strokes.

The Swing Band - Tennis Racquet Resistance Training Band can be used to warmup and to perform isolated resistance training drills (such as serve, forehand, backhand and volley extensions) while normally gripping the tennis racquet.
